FOR MURDEROUS ACT

CHEONG KWAI SENT TO PRISON FIVE YEARS

MORTGAGE DECISION BY JUDGE GEAR-W. R. CASTLE JR. AND E. H. PARIS ANSWER

ress, the pleas of J. H. Boyd and B. H. Wright were further reserved until Monday morning.

Cheong Kwal was found guilty by the jury of assault with intent to murder. Judge De Bolt sentenced him to imprisonment at hard labor for five

Judge Gear sustains the demurrer is the case of Aseu Brown vs. Hattle Bannister et al., in the following opinion: "This is an action in equity by a judgment creditor of a mortgagor to be allowed to redeem the mortgaged property sold at auction under a power of contained in the said mortgage. The case is as to whether, after a sale inder a power of sale contained in a mortgage, a judgment creditor who has obtained a personal judgment against the mortgagor prior to the sale can be allowed to redeem the property. There is no statute expressly author izing such redemption in this Terriand it being a statutory right there is no right to a redemption after a sale under a power of sale mortgage. For this reason the complainant states no ground for relief and the demurrer must be sustained."

In the case of Honolulu Investment Co. vs. Helen Roland and others, Frank Godfrey, trustee, has filed an mended answer.

Judge Robinson fined H. Kin Wai $100 and costs for selling liquor.

In the matter of the estate of Donald

G. Campbell. deceased, Young Hoy makes an offer of $650 for the property. The Lanai injunction suit was transferred by Judge Gear to Judge De Bolt and later both signed an order transferring it to Judge Robinson.

Defendants in Middleditch vs. Harottle and wife have withdrawn their appeal.

W. G. Cooper, receiver of the Progress block, has filed a bond in $2000 with M. P. Robinson and G. J. Walle as sureties.

W. R. Castle Jr. and E. H. Parls by their attorneys, W. R. Castle and Kin-ney, Ballou & McClanahan, have filed an answer to the complaint of Bishop & Co., against H. W. Schmidt and themselves. They rely on the defenses of fraud and lack of consideration, and the fact that they signed th enote for $12,500 in plaintiffs' declaration mentioned, in their respective capacities as trustees for H. W. Schmidt only, to the knowledge of plaintiffs. The suit is for $15,000 including interest.

That the aged clubman's life was saved is due in a great measure to the active efforts of club attendants, who discovered "Uncle George," unconsci-ous, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning lying in the bathroom of his suite, the apartment. Physicians were summon-ed with all haste and under their careful manipulations the patient was restored to consciousness. By afternoon he was pronounced out of danger. But the narrow escape startled his club friends, who speedily were informed of the accident that had befallen him. "Uncle George" went to Oakland Monday evening to visit friends at the Athenian Club. After the evening had been passed in quiet comradeship the guest was invited to remain in Oakland nstead of making the return trip to this city at a late hour. Accepting the invitation, "Uncle George" at midnight was shown to apartments in the club's bachelor suites. After preparing to retire it is supposed that instead of operating the electric light switch properly

The steamship Gaelle arrived from Francisco at about 10 o'clock this norning and was moored at the Naval wharf at about 11:30. The Gaelle left San Francisco November 15 almost together with the Zealandia which she passed outside the Heads. The first couple of days out, rough weather was encountered. After that, the weather became better until about 3 o'clock this morning when the steamer ran into the gale which has been raging here for the last few days. Between the hours of 4 and 6, the vessel had a pretty rough time. No damage was done. The Gaelic carries a number of through passengers for various ports in the Orient. Among these are Hon.
